REPUBLICANS END REFORM LABORS

GREAT REDUCTION IN NUMBER OF DELEGATES TO CON-VENTION.

MANY MEMBERS CRITICISE

Vote is 38 to 7, Which is Finally Made Unanimous—Southern Delegation is Out.

Washington, Dec. 17.—The republican national committee tonight concluded its labor for reform in party procedure and launched its campaign for a reunion of warring elements by adopting a resolution providing for a radical change in the basis of representation in nominating conventions, which would reduce the quota of southern states from 33 to 16 per cent of the convention's total.

The action of the committee, criticized in vigorous terms by several of its members, but made unanimous before adjournment, must be endorsed by states entitled to cast a majority of votes in the electoral college before it becomes party law.

In order that such action shall be taken as promptly as possible the committee appointed a committee consisting of Charles B. Warren of Michigan, Senator Borah of Idaho and Governor Hatfield of West Virginia, to prepare an address to the states urging immediate ratification of the proposal.

This address will be drawn up shortly after the Christmas holidays and leading members of the committee expressed the hope tonight that it would be met by early action.

Approval by the states will insure a call from the national committee for the national convention of 1916 along the lines laid down today.

Reorganization is Compromise.
The adoption of the reorganization plan came as a compromise which reflected the views of many committee members that southern representation should be reduced, but not brought to the vanishing point. The resolution reads:

"Confident that the action of this committee, representing as it does practically the unanimous sentiment of the republican electors of the states, will be ratified by the republican electors of the states; be it

"Resolved, That this committee shall issue a call for the national convention to be held in the year 1916 to nominate candidates for president and vice president in accordance with the following basis of representation:

"Each state shall be entitled in such convention to four delegates at large, one delegate at large for each congressional district, an additional delegate from each congressional district in which the vote either for republican presidential electors in 1908 or for the republican candidates for congress in 1914 shall have been not less than 7,500, and that for each delegate chosen an alternate delegate shall be chosen in the same manner and at the same time to act in the absence of the delegate.

"Provided, however, that the above basis of representation shall not be made the basis of the call for the national convention to be held in the year 1916 unless prior to January 1, 1915, republican state conventions held under the laws of the states or called by the state committees of the states in such number of states as are entitled to cast a majority of the votes in the present electoral college, shall ratify the action of this committee in respect to determining this basis of representation."

The Vote on the Resolution.
The vote on the resolution was as follows:
Aye—Arkansas, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, District of Columbia, Idaho, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Louisiana, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New Mexico, North Carolina, New York, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, Tennessee, Utah, Vermont, Washington, West Virginia, Wisconsin; Louisiana, 23.

Nay—Alabama, Georgia, Mississippi, Nebraska, South Dakota, Texas, Virginia; total 7.
According to figures submitted by the subcommittee the new plan would reduce the total number of delegates from 1,083, as in 1912, to 993. Under it these states would lose delegates: Alabama 9, Arkansas 3, Florida 4, Georgia 10, Illinois 2, Kentucky 1, Louisiana 23.

GIVES OPINION ON THE BLUE SKY LAW
Austin, Dec. 17.—The blue sky law does not apply to the increased capital stock of corporations where such increases were made prior to the time the act took effect, and does not to the time the act went into effect; however, the act does apply to all increases of capital stock made after the act took effect, whether such corporations were incorporated prior to or since that time, provided, of course, the corporations are not within the exceptions specified in the statute.

This was the opinion of the attorney general's department today, given to the secretary of state in answer to several queries propounded.

The department in answer to the question as to whether "the blue sky law applies to towns, mining, oil and gas corporations incorporated under the laws of this state where all increases in capital stock is paid in cash or paid out of the surplus earnings of the corporation," held that:

"Where the purpose of the corporation is to sell the stock based upon its increased capital, then such corporation comes under the terms and

SAYS REFORMS NOT HYSTERIA

SECRETARY DANIELS DECLARES
CRY SET UP BY THOSE WHOM IT HURTS.

REFERS TO THE TARIFF LAW

Says Markets Not Flooded With Cheap
Foreign Products, as Predicted
by Its Enemies.

New York, Dec. 17.—Reactionaries who think to weaken the advocacy of progressive measures by declaring that they are the products of "hysteria" were roundly denounced here tonight by Secretary of the Navy Daniels in an address at the dinner of the North Carolina society of New York.

"A few days ago," Mr. Daniels said, "a distinguished educator from a southern state in a speech in New York declared that such new and progressive measures as the initiative and referendum were 'revolutionary.' Another distinguished authority, a statesman and an educator, referred to certain modern American political doctrines as 'wild theories' which command no sense and no experience, demand being rejected as the result of hysteria."

"The real trouble is that this so-called 'hysteria' hurts. It keeps party pledges, it does not take from party loyalty, it makes protection built up by the tariff law. It elects senators direct from the people. They call it hysteria because it means we can have no more senators from the New York Central railroad, no more senators from the Southern Express company, no more senators from the New York, New Haven and Hartford; no more senators from the Standard Oil company."

"They call it hysteria because it prevents the classes from exploiting the masses and brings the government back to the people. After all, the real hysterics are not the people who stand upon the house tops and cry for reform, but the people who are guarding special privileges and are seeing the castles built by privilege tumbled down about their heads."

Declares is Not Hysteria.
"No, gentlemen," continued the secretary, "the victims of hysteria are not the forward looking, promise keeping reformers who quietly conduct the people through this new way, this gospel of private citizenship, is best for the country, but your hysterical man is that inordinate exclamation point of self interested patriotism who madly saves the stars and stripes with one hand and with the other, while provided, protection-fostered wealth with the other and bewails an alleged tendency to put a period to class legislation; who wildly proclaims

PROTEST TO THE GOVERNMENT

Dallas Business Men Go to Washington to Discuss Location of Federal Building.

Dallas, Dec. 17.—A committee of Dallas business men left for Washington, D. C., Tuesday night in order to protest to the postoffice department against the location of the new federal building on the Lindsey property at Bryan and Masten streets, as proposed by a treasury department official recently in Dallas to inspect the various sites.

The committee is composed of T. L. Camp, S. G. Davis, L. L. Bristol, T. J. Carney and R. W. Higinbotham. They say they are not protesting for any particular location for the building, but merely want it in a downtown situation. They carry with them records and statistics which they claim will prove to Postmaster General Clegg that 75 per cent of the stamp buyers of Dallas are opposed to moving the office from a downtown site.

Motel Strike General in Cleveland.
Cleveland, Dec. 17.—All union employees of the three local hotels affected by the waiters' strike were called out on a sympathetic strike tonight.

About 100 workers are concerned, the hotel managers say, while strike officials claim 150 is the correct number. One hundred and fifty waiters already were out. Practically the same conditions prevail in the three hotels today as obtained yesterday.

CURRENCY NOTE SET FOR FRIDAY

BELIEVE WILL PASS SENATE BE-FORE MIDNIGHT—EXPECT SIG-
NATURE BEFORE DEC. 25.

AFTER THAT COMES BIG TASK

Federal Reserve Board Will Be Organized and System of Regional Banks Begun.

Washington, Dec. 17.—An agreement to vote on the final passage of the administration currency bill "on the legislative day of Friday, December 19," was reached in the senate late today. The agreement provides that the bill be passed before midnight Friday night. If important amendments are still pending at that time, however, a recess may be taken until Saturday morning, as the republicans would not consent to the agreement until the democrats promised they would not keep the senate in session all night Friday.

While the legislative day may run into Saturday it is the expectation of senate leaders that the bill will be passed before midnight Friday night. If important amendments are still pending at that time, however, a recess may be taken until Saturday morning, as the republicans would not consent to the agreement until the democrats promised they would not keep the senate in session all night Friday.

Democratic Leader Underwood, of the house, was in conference with senate leaders today in preparation for the final stages of congressional action of the currency measure. It is thought that but two days will be taken from completion of the bill in the joint conference committee. House leaders have kept in close touch with all changes made by the senate and they expect President Wilson's signature to be attached to the measure before Christmas.

Big Task After Signing.
The big task of organizing a federal reserve board and creating the vast system of regional banks then will begin.

The senate spent today in consideration of further amendments proposed by Senator Hitchcock, defeated by 41 to 37 his amendment to extend the guarantee of bank deposits to cover state banks that joined the new system as well as national banks. Senator Owen expressed his approval of this idea, but the democrats would not support it because it had not received the endorsement of the caucus. A motion by Senator Hitchcock to increase from ninety days to 180 days the maturity date of paper that would be submitted for redcount at the regional banks also was defeated 39 to 34.

The democrats gathered in a hurriedly called conference at 4 o'clock tonight to settle all final differences over the bill and then upon amendments which they would support. The list of amendments submitted to the caucus included many of those which had been proposed by Senator Hitchcock or by republicans and voted down and it offered tomorrow or Friday by Senator Owen and adopted as part of the bill.

With the defeat of the last of the Hitchcock amendments which is expected early tomorrow, affirmative work on the currency bill will begin at once. The amendments comprised the essential features of the measure proposed by Senator Hitchcock and the five republican members of the senate banking committee. With those out of the way Senator Owen will offer his bill, endorsed by the senate democratic caucus as the substitute for the Glass bill the senate will pass.

On Nine-Day Limit.
Republican senators joined Senator Hitchcock today in a strong fight against the provision of the Owen bill limiting to ninety days the maturity date of commercial paper that might be redcounted at the proposed new regional reserve banks.

RUMOR KATY SUIT IS SETTLED

W. A. Webb Declares is Not Known to Him if So—Judge Coke at Austin.

Dallas, Dec. 17.—Unconfirmed rumors afloat in railroad circles of Dallas this morning said that the suit against the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railway of Texas for $155,000.00, brought by the attorney general of the state, was settled. The officials of the road, W. A. Webb, general manager, especially, denied positively that such a settlement was known to them. They also stated by inference that such a settlement was not likely without some knowledge of it coming to general headquarters.

In direct conflict with the officials were statements that Judge Alexander Coke, general counsel of the road, had been in Austin for three days on a mysterious mission and that he was on his way to Dallas, with that mission completed. No comment was made on this message by the officials.

Complaints Against Fish Dealers.
Dallas, Dec. 17.—Alleging failure to take out the license permitting the wholesale delivery of fish and oysters, two complaints were filed with the county attorney today against two local fish dealers.

The complaints allege the violation of the law since it took effect September 1. The penalty provides for a fine of from $100 to $200 per day for each violation. The charges were brought by R. Goodfellow, deputy state game and fish commissioner.

Child Drowns in Keg.
Weatherford, Tex., Dec. 17.—A sixteen months old child of R. T. Roberts at Brock, while playing on the porch of the Roberts' home Tuesday afternoon, fell head first into a large keg filled with water. When found by the family a few minutes later the child was dead.

BAPTISTS END DALLAS MEETING

PRINCIPAL TASK IS DISTRIBUTION
OF $350,000 FOR MIS-SIONS.

NAME GENERAL EVANGELISTS

Committee of Twenty-five Makes Report—Plan for Raising All Benefits.

Dallas, Dec. 17.—The board of directors of the Texas Baptist general convention concluded its work today. The principal task was the distribution of the $350,000 for missions. The committee appointed to name the general evangelists for the state prepared their report during the morning session and reported to the convention.

The following men were named for this work: S. F. Bascom, Greenville district; R. W. Merrill, Abilene district; W. H. Johnson, Handley district; J. M. Harden, Plainview district; E. T. Hanks, Brownwood district; J. T. Bell, San Antonio district; J. H. Smith, Jacksonville district; I. Watson, Houston district; W. R. Brown, to be decided by executive committee of convention. The salary of these men will be $1,500 per annum, and traveling expenses within the state.

A committee on co-operation and beneficence, more commonly known as the "committee of twenty-five" of the Baptist general convention, reported to the board of directors this morning. The brief paper prepared by them was read by M. H. Wolfe of Dallas, chairman of the body, and was a plan for the raising of all benefits to be distributed by the convention during the coming year. It must be adopted by all the boards of the Baptist organization, and the directors took this step by a unanimous vote. The report in full reads:

Committee on Co-operation.
"The committee on co-operation and systematic beneficence, appointed by the Baptist general convention of Texas at its meeting in Waco December 9, 1912, after earnest and extended conference recommended that offerings be made by all the churches to the various objects fostered by the convention as per the following schedule, namely:

State missions	$160,000
Foreign missions	100,000
Home missions	30,000
Education board	30,000
Sanitariums (charity fund)	30,000
Ministerial education	25,000
Old ministers' relief fund	15,000
Cottage home work	10,000
Total	$485,000

"And that the time for taking these public collections be:

January and February—Sanitariums and ministerial education;
"March and April—Home and foreign missions;
"May and July—Associational missions, old ministers' relief, cottage home work and other benevolences;
"August and September—Education board;

"October and November—State missions.

"We also recommend that during the period assigned for the public appeal for any great object, that all other agencies of the convention earnestly co-operate in making such appeal effective.

"In making these recommendations, we recognize the wisdom and necessity of considerate, private appeal, at all times, in behalf of all the objects fostered by the convention.

"And we further recognize the absolute right of the churches to make such schedules in caring for all the Master's work, as in His sight they may deem best."

BOOM COL. FRANK P. HOLLAND

Friends Believe Publisher of "Farm and Ranch" Likely Gubernatorial Timber.

Dallas, Dec. 17.—Friends of Colonel Frank P. Holland of Dallas are considering him a likely stick of gubernatorial timber. They have in Dallas and elsewhere raised a boom of fair-sized proportions, and are trying to induce him to enter the race. Whether he will or not is not known from those who are talking his candidacy, but they have hopes that the publisher of Farm and Ranch will heed their call.

Colonel Holland is well known in all parts of Texas, and should be considered a race for the democratic nomination, he has numerous friends to rally to his aid.

LETCHER SAYS AMERICANS SAFE

ADVISES STATE DEPARTMENT THAT MANY REPORTS WITH-OUT FOUNDATION.

CONDITIONS AROUND TAMPICO

Fletcher Says All Quiet—4,000 Constitutionalists Near Town and May Attack.

Washington, Dec. 17.—Reassurance as to the safety of Americans in Chihuahua conveyed today by Consul Fletcher immediately on the reopening of telegraph communication between that city and El Paso, came as a relief to the administration here.

Washington officials had been of the opinion that the stories emanating from refugees and federal partisans to the effect that Americans and other foreigners in Chihuahua were being subjected to gross mistreatment by the constitutionalists were without foundation, but in the absence of any official information on the subject it had been impossible to convey definite assurance to the many anxious inquirers who were alarmed for the safety of their relatives and friends.

So far Consul Fletcher has forwarded to the state department no reply from General Villa to the representations regarding the treatment of the Spanish residents of Chihuahua, but it is assumed that the consul has not found it easy to communicate quickly with the rebel general, owing to his military activity along the extended line of the constitutionalist army. Little doubt is felt that General Villa will heed the admonitions of the department and extend proper treatment to the Spaniards as well as other foreigners. In this connection department officials deprecate the demonstrations in favor of Huerta which are said to have been made by the Spanish element on the American side of the border.

Consul Fletcher has advised the state department that many reports of maltreatment of Americans in Chihuahua are without foundation.

The department issued this statement: "Consul Fletcher reports that many of the statements published in the El Paso Press relative to conduct visited on Americans since the entry of the constitutionalist forces into Chihuahua are without foundation, as also reports of discourtesy to him on the part of the revolutionary leader."

Rear Admiral Fletcher reported today that normal conditions were being restored in Tampico. His reports were summarized by the navy department as follows:

"The department is in receipt of a dispatch from Rear Admiral Fletcher sent from the Tacoma at Tampico, at 2 p. m. Tuesday, December 16. It states that the weather has moderated and that he has been able to transfer all the refugees back to the summer and that they were returning to Tampico, where conditions have again become normal. A later dispatch, dated 1 a. m. Wednesday, advises that the refugees have all been returned safely to Tampico. The Rear Admiral reports that eight Americans desired to leave on board her. Constitutionalists to the number of about 4,000 are reported to be camping eighteen miles northwest of Tampico. For the present the army transport Sumner will remain at Tampico. Americans and the whole foreign colony are enjoying a period of quiet after the exciting events of the past week, but their peace of mind is marred by the news that 4,000 constitutionalists are encamped near the town and may renew their attack on the federal defenses as soon as they can replenish their store of ammunition.

There is likely to be little change in the disposition of the vessels in the American fleet near Tampico for the present.

CHARTER SWATTED AT BANQUET OF FIREMEN

PLANS ATTACK ON CHIHUAHUA

GENERAL MERCADO DECLARES WILL RECAPTURE CITY FROM VILLA.

SAYS WILL EVACUATE OJINAGA

Ojinaga, Chihuahua, Dec. 17.—"Unless present plans are changed and I see no reason why they should be, the federal army will leave Ojinaga within a few days to march to Chihuahua with a view of attacking and recapturing the city from the rebels."

General Salvador Mercado, commander in chief of the federal army of the north, made this assertion in his camp here today. He said Ojinaga will be evacuated and the federal army under his command would march toward Chihuahua.

The commander's statement was given without the usual reservation attached to military plans. Others prefer to believe, however, that the rebel forces in Chihuahua, the most important city in the north, were too strongly entrenched to invite an attack by the federalists.

"We came here to replenish our provisions and communicate with the war department at Mexico City," General Mercado continued. "Our object here is to attack the rebels. These rebels are a little prospect of a battle here, for the rebels have not yet appeared in large numbers in this vicinity. I never believed Villa's troops would be sent against Ojinaga for they were ready to meet them with five thousand men and five batteries of artillery."

General Mercado would not comment on the reason for his evacuation of Chihuahua, except to say that his flight to the border at this point, opposite Presidio, Texas, was to enable him to communicate with Mexico City. In Chihuahua he had no way of obtaining orders or money for his troops. He now has nine other generals here.

Should Mercado attack or surround Chihuahua, where General Francisco Villa and the main body of rebels are fortified he would check any rebel activity toward Torreon directly south. Federal officers had information that federal troops were moving toward Chihuahua from Torreon and the return of General Mercado was ordered in conformity with orders from Mexico City for an advance on Chihuahua from two directions.

Rebels Prepare for Campaign South.
Juarez, Dec. 17.—Despite General Mercado's statement at Ojinaga that the federalists would attempt to recapture Chihuahua, rebels are preparing for a campaign south.

COMMISSION TO EXAMINE THAW

Judge Issues Receipt on Application for Admission to Bail.

Concord, N. H., Dec. 17.—A commission to examine Harry K. Thaw, determining whether his liberty under bail would be dangerous to public safety, was announced in a receipt issued by Judge Aldrich in a federal court today. The commission is to consist of Frank Streeter, Concord; Dr. Morton Prince, Boston; Dr. Geo. A. Blumer, Providence; R. L. and Dr. Charles P. Bancroft, Concord.

In the receipt, which is on Thaw's application for admission to bail under the habeas corpus proceedings, Judge Aldrich says whether Thaw is insane or not the commission's opinion is "sought upon the question whether it is reasonably probable that his liberty under bail would be dangerous to the public peace and safety."

When the report of the commission is presented the parties may have leave to be heard further on the question of bail.

Oil Plant Burns at Oakland.
Oakland, Cal., Dec. 17.—Fire practically destroyed the local plant of the Pacific Oil Refining company today, causing a loss of about $200,000.

CHARGES MADE AGAINST JOHN BURKE

Washington, Dec. 17.—Secretary Garrison today asked Attorney General McKendall to rule on the question whether John Burke, manager of the Panama railway, was entitled to no compensation for his services as a volunteer in the government employ.

When the attorney general's opinion will depend the action of the government at the conclusion of an inquiry into charges that Burke has profited by receiving gifts or commissions from persons selling supplies to the canal commissary department. Officials said nothing in this investigation thus far had indicated any loss to the government.

If Burke is a government employee, the government might proceed against him criminally, otherwise the only recourse of the government would be to proceed civilly to recover for the Panama railway any money Burke may have received unlawfully.

DOLLINS AGAINST CHANGING TO A PAID FIRE DEPARTMENT.

FOSTER, TOO, OPPOSES

"SWAT THE WHOLE CHARTER,"
SAYS RIGGINS.

The fourth annual banquet of West End Company No. 2 of Waco city fire department, held last night at the Twelfth street station, crystallized into an expression against the proposed amendments to the city charter creating a paid fire department and providing for a public service commission.

Toastmaster Laid T. Williams expressed the sentiments of himself and the company in his opening speech when he stated that there was no apparent need for changing the volunteer to the paid department, and practically every expression that followed echoed this sentiment.

Rowell in the Chair.
W. D. Rowell, secretary of the company, presided and Laid T. Williams was toastmaster. The occasion was the fourth annual banquet of the company, which is composed of forty-seven members and at which many invited guests were present.

Chief of the Fire Department A. M. Prescott, who has held that position for thirty-five years and for twenty-seven years has served as chief, in the course of his remarks said that when the paid fire department came he would resign, but that as long as the volunteers remained and they wanted him he would remain at his post.

John Dollins spoke.
Fire Commissioner John Dollins was the first speaker, and responding to the lead extended by the toastmaster for an expression as to his position on the question of changing the department from a volunteer to a paid one, said: "I see no cause why the commission needs more power to abolish the volunteer department than the present charter gives them. They can make the change at any time. The volunteer men sacrifice their interest to the department. Not alone for this reason, but also from a financial standpoint it would be unwise to change to a paid department. In the last disaster the fire department did heroic work."

Close to His Heart.
He said the boys were never closer to his heart than now. With reference to the public service commission, he said he disliked any proposal which would empower the commission to create such a commission, but give no power to get rid of them, making such a commission self-supreme.

Chief Prescott said he had served under eleven administrations. When he began the city owned one horse and one engine. Today there were nine horses, one engine, thirty-four paid men and the volunteers. He said the local department was the best in the United States, that he had been in every state in the union and he had investigated.

Threatens to Resign.
Ending a remark that grazed chief said: "I am getting old. Soon I will turn it over to some of the boys. I believe the paid department is wrong. The old charter gives the commission the power to make the department paid. When it comes to the paid department I will resign. As long as the volunteer department remains and they want me I am going to stay with my boys."

Riggins Against a Change.
J. W. Riggins, responding to the toast, said the volunteer department of Waco "is the best in the world and remain as it is; that when he saw the provision in the charter to have a paid department he said, 'They don't know what they are doing.' He said Waco had the lowest rate of insurance of any town in Texas and asked why an effort should be made to do better than this. He advocated 'swatting' the charter as a whole.

Foster Opposes It.
City Commissioner J. W. Foster opposed the paid department and praised the work of the department during the recent flood. He also does not approve of the public service commission. Frank Tiley paid a tribute to the voluntary fireman.

Sheriff S. S. Fleming said the Waco department was the best in the South and West and was a credit to any city. He spoke highly of the aid the department gave in the flood and said Chief Prescott's statement about "his boys" was the best evidence that the volunteer department was the best.

Littlefield's Views.
Commissioner J. A. Littlefield explained that one opposed the provision regarding the fire department in the charter, it was not necessary to vote against that document as a whole, as this question was to be submitted on the alternative. He said he was going to vote for the charter and against the paid fire department; that he was going to vote for the charter because it contained the provision which will compel the city to invest its money in its own bonds and because it would place the power of appointing policemen in the hands of the commission as a whole and do away with one-man power.

Better Than Old Charter.
He believed the city too small yet for a public service commission, saying there were many good things in such a commission and some bad ones. He said he did not know how had the new charter is, but "God knows it can't be worse than the old one." He believed the volunteer department would do the best work at the least cost.

The announcement was made by the chair that Mayor James H. Mackey was prevented from attending because of a previous engagement.

Ed Bauserie, second assistant chief of the department, said the efficiency of a department rested on its chief, its engineers and drivers, and next to them the nozzle men. He said that, as the chief, he went with the volunteer department.

After the speaking the members of the company and their invited guests repaired to the banquet boards, where dinner had been prepared under the supervision of Mrs. H. T. Hickerson. The remainder of the evening was spent in the enjoyment of the good things prepared.

Will Use Alaskan Winds to Light the Long Winter Nights

Philadelphia, Dec. 17.—The winds that blow in Northern Alaska are to be harnessed to light up the long polar night in the cause of religion. To this end an announcement was made today that the Right Rev. P. T. Rowe, bishop of the diocese of Alaska, has authorized Dr. W. E. S. Temple, head of the electrical engineering department of the University of Pennsylvania, to design and build an electric light plant operated by a windmill for the use of the Episcopal mission at Point Hope, Alaska.

Point Hope is more than 100 miles north of the Arctic circle, where the polar night continues several months each year.

Bishop Rowe on a recent visit to Philadelphia said that the wind velocity at Point Hope is rarely below twenty miles an hour and that it averages approximately twenty-five miles.

The temperature during the winter months ranges from 35 to 55 degrees below zero. The idea of installing such a plant at the mission, where there are 400 inhabitants, originated, it is said, with the Rev. A. H. Hoare, who is in charge of the mission.

BURLESON MAKES ANNUAL REPORT

POSTMASTER GENERAL MAKES A SWEEPING DECLARATION FOR GOVERNMENT OWNERSHIP.

HAS DEMONSTRATED ABILITY

Refers to Success of Parcel Post. Wants Bulky Second Class Mail Sent by Fast Freight.

Washington, Dec. 17.—A sweeping declaration in favor of the principle of government ownership of telephone and telegraph lines and an assertion that the postal service now is self-supporting for the first time since 1883, are features of the annual report of Postmaster General Burleson, transmitted today to congress.

Concerning the acquisition of telephone and telegraph lines, Postmaster General Burleson says that the government has demonstrated its ability to conduct public utilities, and from his present information, he is inclined to favor the taking over by the postoffice department of the telegraph lines and, possibly, also, of the telephone lines. Discussing the postmaster general says:

"A study of the constitutional purposes of the postal establishment leads to the conviction that the postoffice department should have control over all means of the communication of intelligence. The first telegraph line in this country was maintained and operated as a part of the postal service, and it is to be regretted that congress saw fit to relinquish this facility to private enterprise. The monopolistic nature of the telegraph business makes it of vital importance to the people that it be conducted by the public interest, and this can be accomplished only through government ownership."

"The act of July 24, 1866, providing for the government acquisition of the telegraph lines upon payment of an appraised valuation, and the act of 1902 directing the postmaster general to report to congress the probable cost of connecting a telegraph and telephone system with the postal service by some feasible plan are evidences of the policy of this government ultimately to acquire and operate these electrical means of communication as public facilities, as is done by all the principal nations, the United States alone excepted."

Parcel Post Is Example.
The successful operation of the parcel post has demonstrated the capacity of the government to conduct the public utilities which fall properly with the postal provision of the constitution."

Every argument in favor of the government ownership of telegraph lines may be advanced with equal logic and force in favor of the government ownership of telephone lines. It has been pointed out that a telephone system with the telegraph lines, the same within the meaning of the laws governing the telegraph service and therefore it is believed that the statute enabling the government to acquire, upon the payment of an appraised valuation, the telegraph lines of the country, will enable the government to acquire the telephonic network of the country. While it is true that the telephone companies have not complied with the requirements of Section 5267, revised statutes, this can not be used to nullify the intent of the law, since the nonuse on the part of the government of any of its constitutional privileges in no wise surrenders the right to exercise these privileges whenever the best interests of the nation demand.

In June last a committee was appointed to make an investigation of this subject, to determine the preliminary steps necessary for the government to take toward the acquisition of the telegraph lines of the country in accordance with Section 5267 of the revised statutes. This committee is now engaged in preparing its preliminary report, and if the findings justify such action proper recommendation will be made by the department at a later date.

Postmaster General Burleson presents an elaborate statement of the financial operations of the postoffice department, including a discussion of the methods of bookkeeping, which he has changed.

"It is gratifying to report," says he, "that the total expenses of maintaining the postal service for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1913, is found to be exceeded by the revenues for the same period; that there is an actual surplus of $2,841,906.78; and that the postal service is now for the first time since 1883 self-supporting."

As to his general financial policy, Postmaster General Burleson says: "The dominant policy of the present administration will be to conduct the postal service for the convenience of the public and in the interest of the revenue. Its controlling purpose will be to promote efficiency by the complete standardization of the service, which will be attained by harmonizing equipment, the personnel, and securing the greatest possible co-operation in every quarter."

"The prime consideration in perfecting the personnel of the postal service shall be to recognize efficiency and to eliminate partisanship. In the extension of service and in the imposition of charges the government must be guided not by the consideration of profit, but by the needs of the people. The public has a right to expect the most efficient postal service administered in the most economical manner possible, and made available to them at rates involving for the service as a whole, no element of taxation. The service should be extended, with due regard for the exigencies of public revenue, wherever its benefits, commercial and social, warrant the expenditure necessary, irrespective of whether or not the revenue from each extension will defray the cost thereof."

Recommendation for Extension.
Notable recommendations to congress for the enactment of additional legislation to facilitate and extend the operations of the postal service are made. Among the more important are the following:

"That the postoffice department be given exclusive jurisdiction over the selection of the sites for public buildings to be used wholly for postoffice purposes, and joint authority with the secretary of the treasury in the selection of sites for federal buildings to be used jointly by the postal and other branches of the government service."

"To amend existing law in order to allow $2,000 indemnity for accidental death of any officer or employee of the postal service or for death within one year as the result of injuries sustained in the service in the line of duty. Provision is also made for leave

WATCHED 72 HOURS TO LEARN RESULTS

New Earth Force, Vitalitas, Quickly Added Five Pounds to Mr. Holmes.

"Something had to be done. I realized that, and so I went in for Vitalitas. I watched the results for the first three days—72 hours—and was amazed at the change that came." Such is the story of Mr. W. M. Holmes, a popular and well-known Houston citizen of 2113 Crockett street.

"I had been in poor health and greatly debilitated, probably due from over work. I was run down until I was only a shadow of my former self. I thought Vitalitas might strengthen me, straighten out my stomach and help me generally. I will say that I was amazed at the results. So far I have taken but a half bottle of Vitalitas and the net results are: I have gained five pounds in weight, sleep splendidly, am free of any stomach trouble, have a growing appetite and feel toned up all over."

Vitalitas is Nature's most wonderful curative force. Its corrective system cleansing and tonic effects are marvelous. It is powerful enough to drive out many of the most stubborn diseases, yet is so mild that a child or delicate invalid may take it. Such ailments as the following are swept away by Vitalitas: Indigestion, rheumatism, biliousness, catarrh, nervous debility and innumerable ailments of the stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels and blood. with full pay for a period of one year for injuries sustained in the line of duty and then at half pay for not exceeding one year additional. This is an important recommendation for the reason that the existing law applies only to railway postal clerks, sea postal clerks and postoffice inspectors.

"The elimination of surety bonds now required of postal officers and employees and the substitution of a guaranty fund established and maintained by assessments prescribed by the postmaster general.

For Aerial Mail Service.

"To authorize the postmaster general to contract for experimental aerial mail service, for which an estimate of $50,000 has been submitted."

"To permit the postmaster general to transfer clerks from postoffices of the first and second classes to the railway mail service at salaries higher than the entrance salary in the railway mail service. The purpose of this legislation is to bring about an interchangeable personnel between the railway mail service and the postoffice service, with a view to a more effective utilization of the entire force of postal employees and to afford better opportunities for the advancement of worthy and efficient clerks in postoffices."

"To extend the provisions of existing law so as to provide substitutes for railway postal clerks who are absent with pay on account of sickness, the expense of employing such substitutes to be borne by the government instead of by the clerk."

"To authorize the issuance of postal money orders payable at any money order office."

"To authorize the removal of the limitation on the amount of postal savings deposits with the proviso that interest shall not be paid on more than $1,000. This will permit postal savings depositors to deposit any amount."

Parcel Post Growth Phenomenal.
The report indicates that the growth of the parcel post business has been phenomenal. The experience gained in the operation of the parcel post, the revised rates and weights has shown that a further reduction of rates and increase of weight limit is justified," says the postmaster general.

"It is believed that the parcel post should be made eventually to serve the people as fully and completely as possible without interfering with the efficient conduct of the postal service, and that changes in the regulations that will have the effect of increasing the volume of parcel post mail should be made gradually and only after experience and investigation have shown that they may be put into effect without loss or detriment to the service."

In connection with what is referred to as the "prodigious growth" of the parcel post service, particularly Mr. Burleson discusses additional compensation to the railroads for carrying the mails. He says that data is being secured by the department which will enable him to lay before congress at a later date his conclusions "as to what will be just and adequate compensation for all services which the railroads have rendered or will be called upon to render the government."

It is pointed out that the mailings of newspapers and periodicals as second class matter at a concessional rate and free in the county of publication, "for the first time in the history of the postal service exceeded a billion pounds during the last fiscal year."

In connection with the transportation of magazines and other bulky second class matter by fast freight, instead of by the regular mail routes, the postmaster general expresses earnestly the hope "that congress will remove the prohibition against the extension of this system of handling second class matter and enable the department to apply it where found practicable."

It is the announced purpose of Mr. Burleson not to encourage the extension of free delivery of mails in villages, because of the inferiority of the service and the impossibility of securing economical administration of it. It is his intention, therefore, wherever practicable to utilize the services of rural carriers for the delivery of mails in small towns.

On that phase of the service, the report says:

"As rural routes emanate from practically all of the places where this village delivery service would be desired, the carriers should be used to make such deliveries as may be desirable and feasible to the residents of the villages. The compensation of rural carriers, however, at this time is based on the length of their routes and to make them available for the service indicated, their salaries should be based upon an eight-hour day. With this change these carriers could be used not only to supplement the general delivery service, but in many instances in the delivery of parcel post matter as well, thus obviating the necessity for additional horse hire for the delivery of the larger packages. The compensation of rural carriers should therefore be changed from a mileage to an eight-hour basis, and these carriers should be permitted to deliver mail regardless of the distance from the postoffice or the corporate limits of the city or town."

In conclusion, Postmaster General Burleson points out that the postoffice department is essentially a business institution, which touches every home in the land. A high standard of efficiency is demanded of all postal employees and he says that he will require from every postmaster his individual attention to the affairs of his office and that this requirement will be rigidly enforced.

"For this reason," he says, "the merit system should be adhered to in the postoffice department above all others in order to secure the very highest standard of efficiency in the conduct of its affairs."

PLANS ATTACK ON CHIHUAHUA

Chihuahua, General Benavides, commander at Juarez, said today that the rebels were preparing for an active campaign southward.

"It was General Villa's intention after reaching Chihuahua to carry the campaign southward and that has not been abandoned," Benavides said. "Already 2,000 rebels are near Ojinaga. If the federal attempt to march from the border they will be attacked." That he does not intend to restore the property of foreigners who participated in the revolution and that he considered the expelled Spaniards as having no participation, was the justification given by General Villa for confiscating property in Chihuahua. He said that in expelling the Spaniards in a body he was acting according to the position taken by General Carranza, with whom he was in full accord. Those who had taken part in the internal affairs of the country, he said, whether foreigners or not, would have to suffer the same consequences as Mexican citizens, and he would protect all neutral foreigners.

VILLA IN DENIAL

Declares Foreigners Not Molested. Spaniards Expelled.

Hermosillo, Dec. 17.—General Francisco Villa in a long report received here today by General Carranza, denied that any foreigners were molested in Chihuahua City with the exception of the Spaniards who were expelled. Villa suggested to the supreme leader in the report that the Chihuahua state capital be made his national provisional capital.

"The foreign consul asked for guarantees for their countrymen and these were given in full for all except Spaniards," Villa said in his report. "These, as you know, almost entirely have taken an undue part in the internal struggle of our country and have put themselves always against the cause of the people, of whom we are determined to defend."

General Villa told of the institution of a civil government at Chihuahua City and of the enlistment of 200 federal soldiers who were sent to Juarez on their own reconnaissance. In requesting Carranza to make his military headquarters to Chihuahua General Villa argued that the state was in the hands of insurgent forces and that its central location would make the move most advantageous.

It is said here General Carranza had made no decision in the matter, but was considering it. Villa took occasion to reassure the constitutional commander in chief of the loyalty and constancy of your most affectionate subordinate."

TO ISSUE A DECREE REFORM LABORS ARE ENDED COLLECTIONS IN TEXAS

HUERTA TO MAKE BANK NOTES LEGAL TENDER IN THE REPUBLIC.

Fund to Be Deposited in National Bank and Government Guarantees.

Mexico City, Dec. 17.—A presidential decree making the state bank notes legal tender throughout the republic, a guarantee fund to be subscribed by the state banks and deposited in the national bank, and finally a government guarantee of the bank note, is the program decided upon by a committee of five bankers, representing the national, the Bank of Mexico and two or three other concerns which met this afternoon with the acting head of the finance department.

No difficulty is anticipated in having President Huerta issue the decrees the bankers desiring that the only means of maintaining in circulation a sufficient amount of the medium of exchange.

The management of the central bank exhausted the reserve deposit funds of only three more state banks today by adroit delay in paying and by refusal to accept more than 20 per cent of the bills offered for redemption.

Long before the regular hour of opening a double line of holders of notes stretched a block from the door and when the bank closed this afternoon those half way in the line at the beginning had not reached the paying teller's window.

Although the central bank's difficulties do not concern directly any other bank yet there were heavy withdrawals of deposits from other banks.

The southern states would have 164 delegates in all.

The District of Columbia and Alaska were provided with two delegates each Louisiana 7. Mississippi 8. New York by separate action and the Philippines, Porto Rico and Hawaii also were given two each without the right to vote.

R. B. Howell of Nebraska led the fight against the resolution. He said republican voters would not be satisfied with a reduction of the sort proposed and pointed out, the comparative strength of the delegations from several northern and southern states under it, giving also the percentage of votes cast in these states to show the republican weakness below Mason and Dixon's line and the strength above it.

He proposed as a substitute one of the plans submitted by the republican national committee, which provided for four delegates at large from each state and one delegate in addition for each 10,000 votes or major fraction thereof cast for the republican candidate for presidential electors in 1918. This plan would reduce southern representation to 115 delegates.

Mr. Howell was opposed by Senator Borah, former Governor Hadley, holding the Louisiana proxy; Committee-men Reunell of Arkansas and McGregor of Texas and H. L. Johnson, a District of Columbia negro, who held a proxy from Georgia. On a vote Mr. Howell's motion to substitute congressional committee's plans was beaten 40 to 5; Nebraska, North Dakota, Pennsylvania, South Dakota and Wisconsin voting in the affirmative.

The committee adjourned with no set plan for future meetings and probably will not convene again until 1916.

LADIES! DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

USE GRANDMA'S SAGE TEA AND SULPHUR RECIPE AND NOBODY WILL KNOW.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and abundant. When her hair fell out or took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a 50 cent bottle of "Wright's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," you will get this famous old recipe which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry, feverish, itchy scalp and falling hair.

A well known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and abundant.

Mrs. Sturgis herself is just away from a prolonged sojourn in California, to Mrs. Joseph Shelton is already arrived from Corpus Christi. Miss Edwina Sturgis is due from school in Tennessee for her holiday vacation. Cowan are of this household, and they will welcome home their only son, A. B. Cowan, Junior, from his school in Tennessee.

THE CURRENT EVENT MEETS

IN HOME OF MRS. J. D. BELL
What sounded an altogether prosaic subject unfolded into quite an interesting review and discussion with the Current Event club. This week, weeds and wheat. Papers read by Mrs. Mordis Falkner and Miss Annie Forsgard led to what cultivation might do, and what the plant wizard Burbank had done. Also, through the round table led by Miss Lucy May Johnson, was the possibility in the new medicinal as well as the ornamental standpoint. The subject was made both informing and interesting. Mrs. J. D. Bell as hostess afforded a delicious two course luncheon as her special courtesy to the club for whom she is almost the fairy god mother. There were as guests the Mesdames H. D. Knickerbocker, Fred Meyer, Homer Wilson and G. H. Jackson. Mrs. Grace Wigley, chairman of the club Red Cross sale, was in evidence. The attendance was considerably diminished owing to the alarming condition of B. B. McReynolds, Mrs. McReynolds being a valued member. Mrs. Howard Lanham, president, invited the club for a social session in her home. She named the thirtieth as the day. By this special invitation there will be no more of the regular programs until the new year.

THE WOMAN'S CLUB MEETS

WITH MRS. EDWARD ROTAN
The subject for the session of the Woman's Club with Mrs. Edward Rotan was an especially pleasing one, that of the short story. This form of literature is discussed more than has ever been and the writing of the short story has come to be one of the literary forms as much as the structure of a drama or the meter of poetry. The paper was presented by Mrs. Rotan and was listened to with keen interest. The response to roll call gave quotations from short stories of recent literature was led by Mrs. Llewellyn Aubrey. Several of these stories had been reviewed and they were made upon them by the Mesdames J. D. Willis, Arch Gamel, William McCall and William Bruestedt. The short story under more elaborate review was Irvin Cobb's "Words and Music." This was done by Mrs. H. C. Black. The afternoon being dreary Mrs. Rotan offered the always cheering cup of tea. The attendance was not so good as the program deserved.

The business feature of the afternoon centered in arrangements for the birthday compliment which the Woman's Club will pay to their friends. They will present in an address Dr. Musselman, who made such a favorable impression with his address as before the summer school at Baylor university. It is not decided where the club will receive their friends, but the date is definite and details will work towards this.

The Morning News has inaugurated the Social Calendar as a convenience to the women of Waco. All secretaries are requested to announce days and hours; thus finding a convenience greater than the more tedious telephone. Individual hostesses can make their days and hours known hence avoid interruptions by telephone calls. If the list is complete, the world in general is made familiar with woman's activity in every phase, for this city.

Society Notes.

Twenty-five gifts, and the average woman sends no more will require twenty-five pennies expended for the Red Cross Christmas seals. Surely we can all do this much for the suffering child.

Society Notes.

Many a woman has had the distress of seeing one of her cherished pieces of furniture marred by the steel core of a carpet being unceremoniously innocent thing. Here is an idea: We can not vouch for its being effective, at least, it is harmless and worth the trial. If a piece of furniture has a bruise wear the spot with warm water. Fold a piece of brown paper into several thicknesses and dip this into warm water. Apply, when it is soaked, and over it pass a well warmed, but not hot, flat iron. It is claimed that the bruise will disappear, if not with one trial it will with more than one.

Carry home all the holiday bundles you can; thus save salesmen, drivers and animals.

Have you arranged for your contribution to the empty stockings? We hope you have. Send to Miss Zoe Fitzhugh, to Miss Kate Friend or leave at the library desk.

Say what you may, nothing is quite so satisfying in a new year happening as the old fashioned southern way of keeping open house and greeting any friends who call.

Remember that the holiday gift is not all the manner of tying and sending is much.

Many women's organizations are using the social calendar in the Morning News, some have not yet adopted themselves. Do so. The convenience is untold.

Did you know that the Christmas candle typifies our spiritual life looking upward?

When you are in doubt lead them, says the bridge manual. So, with Christmas, lead them. You are in doubt, send a book. It is justly claimed that no compliment carries what the book does, for it says that the one to whom sent is cultured and intelligent.

Is it over-doing the thing to wear the throat beads and the extension neckties at the same time? We thought so, until we saw it done. It did not look over-dressed at all.

Combinations and contrasts and harmonious tones are all embodied now in the new fashion phrase, "color notes."

The economical housewife is not so much she who can stint her table, but she who understands the art of "make over."

Try ever so hard we simply can not take to any but the good old-fashioned Christmas sentiments. The vocabulary was exhausted long ago, and the newly coined phrases do not put a Christmas flavor into the mouth.

Do not complain about the water deprivation. You know the front veranda is a sight. But look at your neighbors. Is it any better? Let well enough alone and be grateful that the flood served you no worse.

The stars say December and January babies will always have money.

Several little strangers have been welcomed from Babylon this December. So, let us, in extending felicitations, wish that the stars may have forecasted truly.

Mothers, have you realized the good to you for child for you to know personally his teacher? If not the sooner you do the better for you, for your child and for the teacher.

If you are a middle aged woman, stop for a moment to visit in your many ways you have carried your handkerchief. Is it not surprising how we have shifted about that dainty little toilet accessory?

It is now in order to chronicle the departure of the teacher for the holidays. Among these, Miss Marie Leslie goes to spend the time with her mother and sisters at Mineral Wells.

Friends here have been concerned over the illness of Mrs. Antoinette Rotan Peterson which has just undergone in New York City. The reports so far, and they have come at frequent intervals, are altogether encouraging.

The Shakespeare and the Current Events clubs are so far all who have announced holiday session. It is in order for the others to take the social relaxation from study hours. The Woman's Club has already announced the presentation of a lecture as substitute for the accustomed birthday in early January.

Why not have a little one who attends the Story Hour at the library on Friday take something in small coin to leave for the empty stockings?

This will be a wholesome lesson in the joy of giving as well as in receiving.

YOUNGBLOOD HAS INEXPENSIVE METHOD OF DECREASING FLOOD LOSSES.

Principal Damage in Brazos Bottoms Was the Washing Away of Buildings.

College Station, Tex., Dec. 17.—Plans and blue prints showing houses may be constructed that will stand the fiercest overflows and thus eliminate a large part of the loss which results from overflows along the Brazos and other Texas rivers are being prepared by the Texas experiment stations and will be ready for distribution among bottom farmers within a few days.

According to the plans as suggested by E. Youngblood, director of experiment stations and delineated by Prof. A. Mitchell of the college drawing department, the houses in the overflow regions will be anchored.

The chief loss along the Brazos from Waco to the Gulf in this recent overflow was occasioned by houses being washed away. Mr. Youngblood says that loss can be entirely eliminated.

Houses for servants, barns and other cheaper structures may be anchored by means of logs. Two logs are buried about five feet under ground at right angles. Big anchor rods are run through the sills, by the sleepers and floor joists and fastened into stringers across the floor joists. The construction used for two story houses and residences is reinforced concrete foundation with anchor rods fastened to railroad rails buried in the concrete.

Mr. Youngblood and the staff of the main station began an investigation soon after the river overflowed the bottoms near here and information gained at that time in conjunction with that gained from five years' study of farm management and farm buildings has been used in the preparation of these buildings. In addition to the plans for anchoring houses Mr. Youngblood is preparing three bulletins on farm buildings and soon two other bulletins will be issued on farm reorganization.

Farm reorganization of the Brazos farms also will play an important part in a bulletin which Mr. Youngblood hopes to place in the hands of the plantation owners within a few days. He believes that the plan is a system whereby the farms may be reorganized in such a way that floods of the future will not rob the farmer of the savings of a life time. Prof. A. H. Laidley, soil expert at the main station, is now at the bottom lands and will recommend a cropping system for rebuilding that land and increasing the crop productivity.

"I think that it is as much within the scope of experiment waters to render emergency assistance as to conduct systematic investigation," said Mr. Youngblood in discussing the preparation of these bulletins. "With that end in view we are striving to be of assistance to the men who lost thousands of dollars in the recent floods."

STOCK LAW CARRIES.

125 to 75 in Favor of Enactment at Marlin.

Marlin, Dec. 17.—The stock law election, held in precinct one of Falls county yesterday, resulted in a victory for those favoring the enactment of the law.

The vote stood 125 to 75 in favor of putting up the cows. Opposition developed late in the fight and those interested in the election became uneasy.

In the Eureka box no election was held. One Simmons opened the polls but no one came to vote or assist him in holding the election.

BABY'S FACE ONE SORE WITH ECZEMA

Cried for Hours, Could Not Sleep. Resinoid Brought Relief and Cure.

Reading, Pa.—"My baby girl had eczema for over six months. It was painful and itching, she could not sleep day or night, she would scratch till blood and water would run down her neck. Then I turned her over and she cried for hours at a time. The right side of her face was one sore and rash. I got the sample of Resinoid Soap and Resinoid Ointment on a Saturday morning, and put them on, and put them on again in the afternoon and in the evening before I put her to bed, and she went to sleep and slept till next morning. I thought I was in heaven the first night, and by Sunday the eczema was dried up so that all the sores fell off. Resinoid Soap and Ointment cured my baby." (Signed) Mrs. Wm. M. Fletcher, 544 So. 17th St., Aug. 21, 1912.

If you or any of your little ones are suffering from eczema, rash, better, ringworm, or other itching, burning skin eruptions, there is only one better proof of the value of Resinoid. That is, try it yourself and see! BANQUET TO VICTORS

A. & M. STUDENTS HONOR LIVE-STOCK JUDGING TEAM, WINNERS AT CHICAGO.

President Puryear Makes Address—Is First Time Southern College Has Won.

College Station, Tex., Dec. 17.—Five students of the Texas Agricultural and Mechanical college, picked by twelve experienced feeders and breeders as the best students' livestock judging team in the United States or Canada, were banqueted here tonight by happy students and enthusiastic professors.

The five boys who defeated all comers from the United States and Canada at the international livestock exposition at Chicago last month were to have received a hearty reception when they came home. As the college year leader said, they were to "have some fuss made over them."

But in the meantime came the floods which delayed traffic on all railroads and it was impossible for the team to give any definite assurances as to when they would arrive. They came in groups of one and two boys and not together, as they at first planned.

But tonight students and teachers alike paid homage to the boys who accomplished what was thought the impossible, and for the first time in the history of the exposition captured the championship for a southern college.

The honors for the past few years at Chicago have gone to Canadian schools. Purdue, Missouri university and once to Ohio, but none of the southern institutions have ever been up in "G" in the matter of honors.

Last year Texas Agricultural and Mechanical college ranked sixth and led all southern schools and this year when William Reed of Sterling City, J. K. Fisher of Fort Worth, E. G. Gibbons of Kerrville, F. W. Hoopes of Houston and T. R. Brown of Greenwood left for Chicago, under the chaperonage of Prof. John C. Burns, professor of animal husbandry, they looked determined.

Others Picked to Win. Before the contest began Ames, Iowa, Colorado and Nebraska were variously picked to win and the dopesters said that Texas would do well to land above fifth. But when the Texas boys entered the arena, they showed the dopesters up and when the twelve judges, all practical stockmen, submitted their final reports Texas boys had a lead over their nearest competitors, Missouri university, of 159 points.

And that wasn't all. William Reed, who had been picked to win, was the weather eye when looking over the entries and he used it so well that the judges gave him the first prize in the individual class.

And still that wasn't all. There was F. N. Hoopes of Houston, who had never seen a steer until he entered the Texas Agricultural and Mechanical college, and he placed one by the remainder of the students from the United States and Canada and the second honors in the individual contest exposed with him when it was all over. Reed made a score of 819 points out of a possible 1,000; Hoopes 753, Gibbons ranked eighth with 732 points, and Fisher fourteenth with 713 points.

Prof. E. J. Kyle, dean of the school of agriculture, acted as hostmaster at the banquet tonight. The spread was given at a campus hotel and fifty plates were laid, being reserved for representatives of various classes and student organizations and prominent faculty members.

President Puryear Spoke. President Charles Puryear of the college was the first speaker. The program was arranged with words in an acrostic so as to complete the sentence, "We Will Win the Contest or Lose." That was in a measure responsible for their victory over boys who had better opportunities in judging work, though no better instruction. President Puryear assured the team that the college folks felt justly proud of the five who captured the international prize and beseege for future teams the same success.

D. W. Scott of McKinney, a junior animal husbandry student, discussed "Will," and he spoke of the future that his class faced. A. A. Lenert had the word "Win" for his topic, and he told how the team of which he was a member captured the prize at the Fort Worth show this year.

E. Gibbons, a member of the team, had the words, "The Contest," and he told of how the victory was won at Chicago.

But it was Professor Burns who occupied the center of the stage in the matter of speechmaking. He told of the splendid work of the boys in the arena and placed a plea for more equipment and better financial support for his department, at the hands of the state. Those boys who this year won the international championship were taught to judge stock in the open. Classes were frequently held during the winter months, and unlike the schools with which they competed, they are not privileged to take trips over the state visiting the best stock farms and ranches.

The final speech of the evening was made by Cadet Colonel V. V. Parr, who discussed "Trust."

The banquet was arranged by the animal husbandry department, the instructors in this department being F. W. Bell, C. N. Kennedy, L. B. Burks and Prof. Burns. The animal husbandry department at the college is one of the largest divisions in point of students and many graduates of that division of the college are now managers of ranches and stock farms in the state.

Every member of the team responded with a short talk.

Bridge Timbers Unloaded. Marlin, Dec. 17.—Work would have been in progress today on rebuilding the bridge over Big creek on the Odds road but for the rain of yesterday. Three big loads of bridge timbers were unloaded at the bridge site on Tuesday morning and a force of workmen were present and ready to start the construction work. It is very probable that the work was started this afternoon.

This bridge was washed away during the recent overflow of Big creek.

Big Creek Out of Banks. Marlin, Dec. 17.—Some apprehension was felt yesterday afternoon and last night lest another overflow would occur. Big creek was out of its banks in the low land districts and the Reagan turnpike was flooded for a considerable ways.

The water has gone down this morning and with the rain stopped there is no danger of damage being done by high waters. The water had only come out in the low places.

LINGENFELTER CASE

WACO MAN WILL GET A NEW TRIAL, ACCORDING TO THE COURT OF APPEALS.

Figured in Two Long Drawn Out Trials in County Court.

William Lingenfelter, barber, convicted in county court some months ago of vagrancy and fined $200, will receive a new hearing as the result of the finding of the criminal court of appeals. Sitting at Austin yesterday, that judiciary reversed and remanded his case back to the lower court.

Lingenfelter, well known about town, was the principal figure in two long-drawn-out trials in county court a few months ago where he faced trial in two different cases for vagrancy.

He was convicted in both cases. In the first case he was fined $200. This case was appealed. Pending the result of the appeal he was again arrested. In the latter case he was found guilty and fined $500. He accepted the verdict and paid the fine. The initial case, carried to the higher court, came back yesterday reversed.

ANTI-SUNDAY SHOW CRUSADE A FAILURE

WILL TERRY'S CASE, APPEALED FROM JUSTICE COURT, IS DISMISSED.

LAST OF CRUSADERS' CASES

Case of Karl Fricke, Charged With Aggravated Assault and Battery, Halted by Death.

The last of the complaints filed in Justice Harvey M. Richey's court some months ago by individuals other than officers against owners and managers of motion picture shows charging them with operating their places on Sunday was disposed of yesterday by being dismissed by the county attorney's department.

The case was that of Will Terry. It was one of about six filed. Terry's case was the first to come to trial. A jury in the justice court sentenced him to a fine of $20. The case was appealed to county court and has been hanging in that tribunal until the dismissal was entered by the attorney for the state.

Other Cases Dismissed.
In each of the other cases the complaints were dismissed by Justice Richey. With the exception of Terry's case all were tried before the court. Judge Richey held that the operation of the shows on Sunday by the donation plan was not a violation of the law, and dismissed the other complaints as they were called for trial. Terry's case, tried before a jury, however, was compelled to take its course in the courts. After much investigation the attorney's department dismissed the case.

CAUGHT IN FIERY WATER WORKS RAIN OF GREASE IN COMMISSION

RARE PRESENCE OF MIND SAVES
THE LIFE OF MISS KATES.

IN AGONY, RETAINS HER WITS

Her Dress a Seething Mass of Flame,
Cool Headed Young Woman Rolls on Ground.

Her clothing aflame and suffering excruciating pains from burns she received when a shower of boiling grease was rained upon her arms and neck, Miss Clemmie Kates ran screaming from the kitchen of the home of Mrs. Addie Allison, 1702 North Fourth street, into the back yard, a human torch.

Rare presence of mind and extraordinary coolness in the face of danger combined with prompt emergency treatment by Dr. W. L. Crosshwaite, who was summoned by eyewitnesses to the accident, saved the young woman's life. She received serious burns on the abdomen, the hot grease having penetrated her dress and arms and hands are injured and disfigured temporarily, but her condition is not critical and she will be incapacitated for only a few days, in the opinion of the physician who attended her.

Caught in Rain of Grease.
It was shortly after 6:30 o'clock that Miss Kates was standing at the kitchen range, assisting in the preparation of supper for the household. A pan of grease on the stove became overheated to the boiling point. Suddenly there was a noise like an explosion of gunpowder and the boiling grease was projected from the deep iron pan, falling like a shower in the kitchen. Miss Kates was standing about two feet from the pan. The grease dripping down the front of her dress became ignited in some unaccountable manner and in an instant the young woman's clothing was mass of flame.

Smothered the Flames.
She realized her danger and, dashing into the yard, threw herself on the ground, rolling over and over until the fire in her clothing was smothered. Other members of the household, who had followed her into the yard, telephoned for the nearest physician, and a few minutes later Dr. Crosshwaite was applying healing ointments that prevented more serious results than the physician anticipated when he first examined the burns from which the courageous Miss Kates suffered.

DRIVEWAY NOT SO HARD HIT

Inspection by Commissioner Kendall Shows Damage Less Than Was Anticipated.

The river driveway at Cameron park has not received so serious damage as was feared from the recent overflow, according to Commissioner Benjamin G. Kendall, who yesterday inspected the repair measures now being undertaken.

Although water was running across the driveway in a current six to eight feet deep, the embankment on which it was built held firm. The river, which was planted on the sides of the embankment when first built, the surface of the road was badly washed, and a deposit of thick sand left on it. The commissioners have ordered the deposited sand dressed into shape by grading, after which clay and gravel will be laid for a new surface. The road will possibly be ready for use in ten days.

KRIS KINGLE'S BUSY SEASON

Old Saint Nick Is Piling Up Work for Postmaster Hoffman These Days.

Christmas packages for the parcel post flooded in upon Postmaster W. H. Hoffman yesterday. The Christmas season of mail matter, delayed until yesterday by the rainy weather, stacked up on the employees of Uncle Sam so heavily that the postmaster himself had to take a desk in the hall and work without remission all day long.

Work for the Postmaster.
There was no respite from the continuous stream of bundles from suitcases down to thimble cases, which were brought in and piled on Mr. Hoffman's table. He hardly had time to look up from his work as he blue-pencilled the postage on the boxes and dealt out the stamps.

From first appearances, Santa Claus is starting a record-breaking business this year.

PUMPS AGAIN FORCING WATER THROUGH ALL THE SERV-ICE MAINS.

MUDDY, BUT CLEARING RAPIDLY

Submerging of Pumping Machinery
Caused Surprisingly Slight Damage, Says Supt. Quay.

At 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon the big pump in the East Waco station was cleared of mud and set to work forcing water through mains all over the city. In most of the residence districts water was flowing last night and it is promised everywhere today.

There still remains a layer of mud in the bottom of the pump pit, but it is not sufficient to interfere with the work. The lake near the station has been drained practically dry, and will cause no more damage from seepage.

25 Per Cent of Capacity.
About thirty wells are being utilized. This gives only a quarter of the total capacity of the plant, but the rest of the wells have been damaged or filled up by the overflow until they are out of commission for the present. This means that the city will be short on water for several days, and it is urged that every citizen who has any regard for the general welfare will abstain from using water for unnecessary purposes. If the mains can be kept full the East Waco pump is powerful enough to force the water all through the city, but reckless use will cut down the supply so that it will be impossible to fill the mains.

Use Water Sparingly.
Superintendent S. J. Quay last night requested that public notice be given of the conditions, and that water be used sparingly until more wells are in operation.

After the pump was started yesterday, it took several hours to fill the mains and in some of the higher portions of the city water will not be received until this morning. The supply now being pumped into the mains is muddy, from a source so far not located. One of the wells, it is presumed, from which the water is being drawn is filled up or the concrete casing broken. To locate the muddy well or wells and clarify the supply was the chief employment of the force at the waterworks last night.

In Good Working Order.
In spite of the inundation, which it has been subjected, the pump machinery is in good working shape. Superintendent Quay stated last night that it had sustained only slight damage.

OLD MILL FOR COTTON PALACE

Scenic Waterway to Be Installed on the Amusement Plaisance
Next Year.

An "Old Mill boat ride" will be the big new feature of the Cotton Palace of 1914, if the directors succeed in carrying out plans proposed at the meeting held last night.

A proposition has been submitted for the construction of the old mill, and it is probable that if the deal is not carried through with one company it will be made through another.

Scenic Waterway.
The attraction will be a form of scenic route, with the ride by water instead of by rail. Boats will run along a picturesque stream, will pass through the old mill and on into numerous twisting passageways through caves and canyons, where the landscape will be dark enough to suit the convenience of boys with their best girls.

This promises to be the big show at the next exposition. If the contract now pending is closed, work will begin on it in the near future.

Service Restored on Katy.
Commencing Friday, passenger service on the Missouri, Kansas and Texas will be entirely restored. All trains passing Waco will be running on the same card time as before the floods that interrupted service. The announcement of restored passenger service was made by City Passenger Agent Morrow yesterday.

State Closes Case Against the Seller of Amateurs' Songs

New York, Dec. 17.—The state closed its case late this afternoon against Robert Kellogg, erstwhile piano salesman, charged with using the mails to defraud writers of song poems. Wm. Milne of the copyright office in Washington testified that Kellogg had defrauded several songwriters by seven poems sent by clients, whereas his agreement called for copyrighting each.

Kellogg then took the stand in his own defense. Many composers of popular songs, Kellogg testified, have the gift of music, but are not musicians. "Often the best they can do," he said, "is to pick out music for their songs on a piano with one finger. I revise the music of such compositions and put it into good condition. The writing of music is an inspiration and it sometimes takes weeks to write the music for even a popular song. I wrote about 1,200 songs during the five years. My receipts amounted to about $800 a month."

Several witnesses who sent their poems to Kellogg testified in his behalf. Among them was John B. Van, an elevator starter.

"It is a great mystery where my inspiration comes from," he said. "I prefer writing poetry to elevator starting, but elevator starting is more certain in its pay."

The titles of some of the songs sent to Kellogg as testified to by the witnesses who asserted they were satisfied with his publishing efforts were: "La Grappa," "Kerch," "The Drunkard's Pay," "The Millionaire's Grief," "When My Mother Used the Slipper," and "Under the Old Man's Table Again."

Telephone Auditor Becomes Farmer.
San Saba, Tex., Dec. 17.—C. C. Lockwood, former auditor for the West Texas Telephone company at Brownwood, has resigned that position to engage in farming in San Saba county and has purchased a tract of 700 acres of land on the Colorado river near here on which he has located with his family.

The tract contains over 1,000 pecan trees and nearly all of the land is susceptible of irrigation.

AD MEN TO MEET TONIGHT.

Club Will Vote on Amendment Affecting Telephone Directories.

The proposed amendment to article 4 of the by-laws of the Waco Ad club will be voted upon at tonight's meeting of that organization. The amendment, which was offered by E. A. White, eliminates telephone directories from the list of advertising mediums under the ban of the club.

The usual luncheon will be served at 6:30 p. m. and a large attendance is particularly desired because of the action to be taken on the proposed amendment. A lantern slide lecture prepared by Prof. Paul T. Cheerington, entitled "Service to Customers," will be read by one of the members.

Ed Long Is to Hang.
Austin, Tex., Dec. 17.—Ed Long, the Dallas negro sentenced recently to hang for the murder of Special Officer Bennett on the outskirts of Dallas, was today refused a commutation of sentence by Governor Coakley and will hang on December 19.

The board of pardons refused to recommend a commutation of sentence, but asked that sentence be postponed until the date set for the execution of Ed Christian, found guilty of murder in the same case. The date has not been set for the hanging of Christian, however.

To Lecture at Schools.
Belton, Tex., Dec. 17.—County Agricultural Agent Thos. Youngblood is planning to give a series of lectures in the rural schools of Bell county in connection with the work in which he is engaged and will pay especial attention to the organization of boys' corn clubs.

DARK CHRISTMAS FOR "DUDE"

On Parole From Gatesville He Shot
Out the Lights, so He Must Go Back.

Dewey Powell, employed for some months by the Western Union Telegraph company, as messenger boy and known to those to whom he delivered the little brown missive as "Dude," must return to the state training school at Gatesville, from which place he has been out on probation.

"Dude" went up to Gatesville more than a year ago. Good behavior and an effort on the part of some interested in him obtained a parole for the lad.

A day or so ago he is said to have "shot out the lights" from in front of the Western Union. An air rifle was the weapon used.

Gloomy Days for "Dude."
As a result "Dude" goes back to Gatesville. It will not be necessary to try him for the offense as he will be placed in custody of the sheriff's department and returned for violating the conditions of his parole. County Attorney John B. McNamara took the complaint against "Dude" yesterday.

First Boy to Break Parole.
As far as his memory runs the county attorney can recall no instance where a similar case has come to his attention and is of the opinion that "Dude" is the first boy to violate the provisions of his parole and to be returned to Gatesville on such complaint since his term of office. The lad will be taken away immediately.
